

All Florida Security adds Marketing Assistant

Lucia Borroto, a recent graduate of Indian River State College's Graphic Design program, has joined the All Florida Security team as the marketing assistant. Lucia began working with All Florida Security through a temporary contract from Express Professionals Staffing. She exceeded expectations during that period and has become a full-time employee. Her position includes completing important tasks in print media, social media marketing, newsletters, videos and pictures, website blog assistance, designing promotional items and so much more!

Lucia and her marketing expertise have been seen at many networking and community events around town, such as the St. Lucie County Safety Festival, TC Business Summit, and the Woman's Council of Realtors Golf Tournament.

"We are extremely excited with the addition of Lucia," said Tina Stein, owner of All Florida Security. "I knew I was looking for a needle in the haystack, and someone to be an all-around marketing professional, and shockingly I found her! Also, it was a pleasure and ease to work with Tage and Lin at Express Professionals. They immediately recognized what we needed and sent the right person to fill our position."
